Knights of St Columba. Calling all men to become a Knight in the Church Militant here on earth. As a practising Catholic man, you may have an interest in helping those in need, serving your parish, developing your faith and giving something back to your community. By joining the Knights, you can do all that and more. You will work with like-minded men across your Diocese who can offer their support and experience. Working together towards a common goal, creates a strong bond of fraternity with new friends who become 'Brothers'. - Deepen your own faith and spiritual life through prayer and good works. - Support the Holy Catholic Church and its Clergy. - Develop a new circle of 'like-minded' Catholic friends and active social life. - Develop your own sense of self-worth and use of your God given talents.

The choice of St Columba, as the patron saint of the Order of the Knights of St. Columba, was inspirational. Time has proven; that no wiser choice could have been made than that of the missionary Saint, who brought the Christian faith to Scotland and Northern England. The last words attributed to St. Columba, to his followers, before he died:

"These, O my children, are the last words I address to you – that you be at peace, and have unfeigned charity amongst yourselves, and if you follow the example of the Holy Fathers, God the Comforter of the good will be your helper, and abiding with him will intercede for you, and he will not only give sufficient to supply the wants of the present life, but will also bestow on you the good and external rewards which are laid up for those who keep his commandments."
